Re: Amplify Education, Inc. v. Greenwood Publishing Group, Inc. d/b/a Heinemann, Civil No.
1:13-cv-02687-LTS-RLE

Dear Judge Swain:

On behalf of both Amplify Education, Inc. (“Amplify”) and Greenwood Publishing Group, Inc. d/b/a Heinemann (“Heinemann”), I write to jointly request an additional 15 pages for the opening and responsive claim construction briefs with respect to U.S. Patent No. 6,299,452, and an additional six pages for the reply brief. This would result in 40 pages for the opening and responsive claim construction briefs, and 16 pages for the reply brief. See, e.g., Princeton Digital Image Corp. v. Hewlett-Packard, Co. et al., 12-cv-779, Aug. 16, 2013 Order [Dkt. 321] (S.D.N.Y.) (allowing 45 pages for opening claim construction brief).

The parties submitted their Joint Claim Terms Chart on June 5, 2014 [Dkt. 41]. The parties seek construction of 28 means-plus-function terms and 12 non-means-plus-function terms.

While the parties have attempted to group terms in order to address them together, the current page limits are insufficient to properly address all of the disputed terms of the ’452 patent. The Court would benefit from additional briefing to allow the parties to set forth their arguments with respect to all of these terms.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Cosmin Maier
